Warning

This is an official Court Order. If you disobey this Injunction, you will be subject to arrest and prosecution for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this Injunction. Violations of this Injunction should be reported to a law enforcement agency, not the Court. Both parties must notify this Court if an action for dissolution (divorce), separation, annulment or paternity/maternalty is filed. This is NOT a parenting time (visitation) or custody order. You must file those requests separately in Superior Court. If you disagree with this Injunction, you have the right to request a hearing which will be held within 10 business days after your written request has been filed in the Court that issued this Injunction. Nothing the Plaintiff does can stop, change, or undo this Injunction without the Court's written approval. You must appear in Court to ask a judge to modify (change) or quash (dismiss) this Injunction. Even if the Plaintiff initiates contact, you could be arrested and prosecuted for violating this protective order. If you do not want the Plaintiff to contact you, you have the right to request a protective order against the Plaintiff.
