The First Amendment Coalition of Arizona, Inc. exists to provide legal advice and services at no clost to journalists in any media working in Arizona. It maintains a "media hotline" staff by contract attorneys proficient in matters concerning the protection of access to government news sources, inparticular public and media rights under state and federal open meeting laws, public records under the Freedom of Information Act and the Arizona Public Records law. The Coalition documents court cases, addresses public groups, and resolves media conflicts.
