WRIT OF CONTINUING NON-WAGE GARNISHMENT

GREETINGS TO: WORLDNETDAILY BOOKS
2020 Penn. Ave., NW, Suite 351
Washington, DC 20006
Attn: Editor and Chief Joseph Farah

An application for a Writ of Continuing Non-Wage Garnishment against the property of Jack A. Abramoff, the defendant, has been filed with this Court. A judgment has been entered in the above-captioned criminal case requiring the defendant to pay restitution in the amount of $23,134,995.00. There is a total balance of $22,723,192.08, including penalties, due and owing on the judgment as of October 7, 2011, plus post-judgment interest and delinquent penalties.

You are required by law to answer in writing, under oath, within ten (10) business days, whether or not you have in your custody, control, or possession any property owned by the defendant, including non-exempt, disposable earnings or funds, including any monies owed to defendant from a book contract.

You must file the original written answer to this writ within ten (10) business days of your receipt of it with the Clerk of the Court, United States District Court, 3rd and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room 1225, Washington, D.C. 20001. Additionally, you are required by law to serve a copy of the answer upon the defendant at his last known address: 812 Edelbult Drive, Silver Spring, MD, 20901, and upon counsel for the United States, Judith A. Kidwell, Assistant U.S. Attorney, at 555 4th St., N.W., Room E-4212, Washington, D.C. 20530.

Under the law, there is property that is exempt from this Writ of Continuing Non-Wage Garnishment. Property that is exempt and that is not subject to this order is listed on the Claim for Exemption form attached to the Notice of Continuing Non-Wage Garnishment. A copy of the Notice is attached hereto.

You shall withhold and retain any property in which the defendant has a substantial non-exempt interest and for which you are, or may become, indebted to the defendant, pending further order of the court.

NOTICE OF CONTINUING NON-WAGE GARNISHMENT

You are hereby notified that the non-exempt property of the defendant is being taken by the United States Government, which has a judgment in the above-captioned criminal case ordering that the defendant pay restitution of $23,134,995.00. A balance of $22,723,192.08, including penalties, remains outstanding.

In addition, you are hereby notified that there are exemptions under the law which may protect some of the property from being taken by the Government if Jack A. Abramoff can show that the exemptions apply. Attached is a description of the exemptions that apply in garnishments arising out of a federal criminal judgment.

If you are Jack A. Abramoff, you have a right to ask the Court to return your property to you if you think you do not owe the money to the Government that it says you do, or if you think the property the Government is taking qualifies under one of the above exemptions.

If you want a hearing, you must notify the Court of this within 20 days after receipt of this notice. Your request must be in writing. If you wish, you may use the form attached to this notice to request the hearing. You must either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the United States District Court at United States Courthouse, 3rd and Constitution Avenue, Room 1225, Washington, D.C. 20001. You must also send a copy of your request to counsel for the United States, Judith A. Kidwell, Assistant U.S. Attorney, at 555 4th St., N.W., Room E-4212, Washington, D.C. 20530, so the Government will know you want a hearing.

The hearing will take place within 5 days after the Clerk receives your request, if you ask for it to take place that quickly, or as soon after that as possible. At the hearing, you may explain to the judge why you believe that the property the Government has taken is exempt or why you think that you do not owe the money to the Government. If you do not request a hearing within 20 days of receiving this notice, your non-exempt property will be paid on your debt.

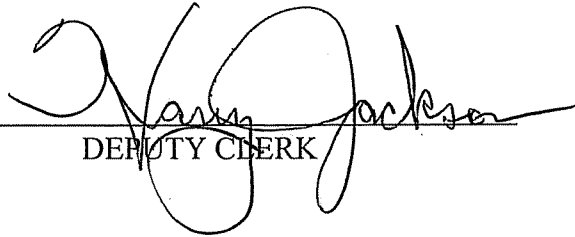

If you think you live outside the federal judicial district in which the Court is located, you may request, not later than 20 days after you receive this notice, that this proceeding to take your property be transferred by the Court to the federal judicial district in which you reside. You must make your request in writing, and either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the Court at United States Courthouse, 3rd and Constitution Avenue, Room 1225, Washington, D.C. 20001. You must also send a copy of your request to Judith A. Kidwell, Assistant U.S. Attorney, U.S. Attorney's Office, 555 4th Street, N.W., Room E-4212, Washington, D.C. 20530, so the Government will know you want the proceeding to be transferred.

Be sure to keep a copy of this notice for your own records. If you have any questions about your rights or about this procedure, you should contact a lawyer, an office of public legal assistance, or the Clerk of the Court. The Clerk is not permitted to give legal advice, but can refer you to other sources of information.

CLAIM FOR EXEMPTION FORM
EXEMPTIONS UNDER FEDERAL LAW (18 U.S.C. § 3613)

NOTE: 18 U.S.C. § 3613(a), the federal statute governing liens arising from criminal fines and restitution obligations, generally incorporates the exemptions available to individual taxpayers under the Internal Revenue Service Code.

I claim that the exemption(s) from enforcement which are checked below apply in this case:

- _____ 1. Wearing apparel and school books.--Such items of wearing apparel and such school books as are necessary for the debtor or for members of his family.
- _____ 2. Fuel, provisions, furniture, and personal effects.--So much of the fuel, provisions, furniture, and personal effects in the Debtor's household, and of the arms for personal use, livestock, and poultry of the debtor, as does not exceed $6,250 in value.
- _____ 3. Books and tools of a trade, business, or profession.--So many of the books, and tools necessary for the trade, business, or profession of the debtor as do not exceed in the aggregate $3,125 in value.
- _____ 4. Unemployment benefits.--Any amount payable to an individual with respect to his unemployment (including any portion thereof payable with respect to dependents) under an unemployment compensation law of the United States, of any State, or of the District of Columbia or of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

5. Undelivered mail.--Mail, addressed to any person, which has not been delivered to the addressee.
6. Certain annuity and pension payments.--Annuity or pension payments under the Railroad Retirement Act, benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, special pension payments received by a person whose name has been entered on the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Coast Guard Medal of Honor roll (38 U.S.C. 1562), and annuities based on retired or retainer pay under Chapter 73 of Title 10 of United States Code.
7. Workmen's Compensation.--Any amount payable to an individual as workmen's compensation (including any portion thereof payable with respect to dependents) under a workmen's compensation law of the United States, any State, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.
8. Judgments for support of minor children.--If the debtor is required by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, entered prior to the date of levy, to contribute to the support of his minor children, so much of his salary, wages, or other income as is necessary to comply with such judgment.
9. Certain service-connected disability payments.-- Any amount payable to an individual as a service-connected (within the meaning of section 101(16) of Title 38, United States Code) disability benefit under--(A) subchapter II, III, IV, V, or VI of Chapter 11 of such Title 38 or (B) Chapter 13, 21, 23, 31, 32, 34, 35, 37, or 39 of such Title 38.
10. Assistance under Job Training Partnership Act. – Any amount payable to a participant under the Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.) from funds appropriated pursuant to such Act.
11. Minimum exemptions for wages, salary and other income. The exemptions under 26 U.S.C. § 6334(a)(9) do not apply in criminal cases. The exceptions under the Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1673, for disposable earnings, automatically apply and do not need to be claimed. The aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any workweek which is subjected to garnishment may not exceed (1) 25 % of his disposable earnings for that week, or (2) the amount by which his disposable earnings for that week exceed thirty times the Federal minimum hourly wage in effect at the time the earnings are payable, whichever is less.

The statements made in this claim of exemptions and request for hearing as to exemption entitlement and fair market value of the property designated are made and declared under penalty of perjury that they are true and correct.

_____ I hereby request a court hearing to decide the validity of my claims. Notice of the hearing should be given to me by mail at:
