5. The Obama administration has used missile strikes fired from unmanned drones to kill at least three United States citizens on foreign soil, none of whom had renounced their citizenship or been convicted of a crime in any U.S. court. The administration received no permission to conduct these killings from Congress or from any federal judge or court. Regardless of whom these people were who were killed, do you agree or disagree that the Obama administration had the right to kill its own citizens in this manner?
